WASHINGTON.

The Tenure-of-Office Act Signed by the President.

The Consular and Diplomatic Appointments to be Made Soon.

A Large Number of Nominations Confirmed by the Senate.

Debate in the Senate on the Pacific Railroad Bill.

Mr. Jenckes' Civil Service Bill Again Before the House.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 5.

The doubt and uncertainty about the fate of the Tenure-of-Office act was dispelled this morning by the fact that the President approved the law at an early hour. Subsequently General PORTER, Private Secretary, announced the approval of the bill in the House, and finally set all rumors at rest. The act was subjected to a close scrutiny by the President and Attorney-General, and the President is fully of the opinion that he will be able to act under it without embarrassment, and that so far as the danger of any conflict with the Senate is concerned, that contingency is not likely to happen until that body takes the initiative by refusing to act upon nominations made in place of suspended officers.

THE PRESSURE OF OFFICE-SEEKERS.

The Pressure upon the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, Postmaster-General, and Commissioner of Internal Revenue to-day in behalf of office, was greater than on any single day heretofore. The fact that Congress has agreed to adjourn next Saturday stimulates everybody to secure action on the pending nominations at once. The Senate is very anxious to be relieved of the necessity of an Executive Session after adjournment, and evinced the fact to-day by a very large number of confirmations, nearly clearing the calendars of the several committees. The President remarked this morning that he would try and send in all the important nominations before Saturday, so as to obviate the necessity of an extra session.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

There was no legislation in the Senate to-day. Almost the entire session was occupied by the discussion of the Union Pacific Railroad bill, on which Senators were unusually prolix. The proposition under consideration was the amendment of Mr. SHERMAN, authorizing the President to fix the point of junction, on the report of a board of uninterested and eminent gentlemen. Messrs. HOWARD, SHERMAN, WILLIAMS, THAYER, TRUMBULL, COLE and STEWART made speeches, which, if they served no other purpose, frittered away the day until 4 o'clock, when, without reaching a vote, the body went into Executive Session. The debate took a wide range, and a great deal of ingenuity was displayed by the adherents of the respective lines. Mr. THAYER stated that when Secretary SCOFIELD had learned the intention of the last Administration to issue the bonds to the Central Pacific Company, he protested against such action in the strongest manner. The result of which was the retention of bonds to the amount of $1,000,000, which would otherwise have been paid to the same corporation. Mr. HOWARD proposed that Generals SHERIDAN, THOMAS, MCDOWELL and HALLECK, and THOS. J. DURANT be appointed a Board of Commissioners to establish the point of junction, and Mr. WILLIAMS suggests that the question be settled according to the legal rights of the contesting roads, which latter modification of his amendment Mr. SHERMAN adopts. The expression of views to-day was not general or comprehensive enough to justify the formation of a safe opinion as to which amendment, if any, the Senate will agree to adopt. The agents of both roads are sedulously working to secure the adoption of such legislation as will inure to the interests of their respective companies.

ANNEXATION SCHEME.

The atmosphere of Washington ever since the 4th of March has been full of annexation. The feeling among politicians and others in favor of the acquisition of new territory appears to grow stronger day by day, and if public opinion on this subject should gather strength in the proportion that it has for the last few weeks, it is probable that there will be a pretty strong annexation party in the United States before the close of the year. Even now it is gravely and confidently asserted that the present Administration will put this question in the foreground of its policy, but nothing has been said so far by the Executive or any of his Ministers to justify these statements. The Banks resolutions, which were introduced a few days ago, and the Cuban sympathizers who are at work here, and a dozen other minor influences, fan the sentiment. The newspaper articles in reference to the subject are also not without effect, and the restless spirits, who are always numerous in Washington, are industriously turning every little occurrence and incident to their advantage. Some are looking toward the British Provinces, and others at Mexico; but at the present time the great majority have their eyes on Cuba, which latter they expect to fall into our lap within a short time. The Foreign Affairs Committee of the House, at their meeting this morning, discussed the St. Domingo annexation project, but arrived at no conclusions.

THE CURRENCY.

The Banking and Currency Committee held a special meeting this morning and further considered the Currency bill. Hon. AMASA WALKER occupied the Committee for nearly an hour in an address upon the subject of the currency, the amount now in circulation, and its relative proportion as compared with the amount in circulation before the war. The Committee reached no conclusion on the distribution section. The members are very much at sea as to whether any practical benefit will be derived from it or from any similar proposition. The impression prevails that after all nothing will be done at the present session.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CONTESTED ELECTION.

The Pennsylvania contested election case of LEONARD MYERS against JOHN MOFFATT was concluded in the Committee on Elections this morning, but no vote was taken. There is little doubt but that Mr. MYERS will be awarded the seat by a majority of the Committee.

CONSULAR AND DIPLOMATIC APPOINTMENTS.

A large number of Consular and Diplomatic appointments, including some of the more important foreign Missions, will be transmitted to the Senate within the next two or three days; some of them will be names heretofore mentioned in connection with leading positions. The last prominent name understood to be positively fixed upon is that of Hon. S. SHELLABARGER, late member of Congress from Ohio, as Minister to Portugal.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

About forty nominations were transmitted to the Senate to-day. The most important of which were that of Ex-Congressman ASHLEY, of Ohio, as Governor of Montana, and Ex-Congressman H. D. WASHBURN, of Indiana, as Surveyor for the same Territory. Mr. ASHLEY was strongly backed by powerful political influence, over one hundred members of Congress having signed his application. It was thought on Saturday that there was some hitch in the matter, because his did not come in with other nominations of the same character at that time; but whatever it was, the hero of impeachment carried off the prize to-day with flying colors.

INDIAN APPROPRIATIONS.

The House Committee on Appropriations reported back the Senate amendments to the Indian Appropriation bill this afternoon. They disagreed to all the Senate amendments covering expenditures for General SHERMAN's recent Indian treaties, amounting in the aggregate to $2,000,000. They agree to the Quaker proposition for the appointment of ten Commissioners by the President, with an unimportant modification. In lieu of the treaty appropriations proposed by the President, they propose to place at the disposal of the President the sum of $2,000,000, to be used by him at his discretion for the purpose of feeding the Indians and providing means to prevent outbreaks. He is required to make a report at the next session of Congress of the manner in which this fund has been disbursed.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

The Senate Committee on Appropriations will add very few items to the Deficiency Appropriation bill, and will report it to-morrow. They will make appropriations for finishing the Custom-houses at Portland and Ogdensburg, and will add $30,000 for the removal of the hydraulic weight used in the hydrostatic printing of the Treasury Department, which process has been abolished by Secretary BOUTWELL.

SUBMARINE CABLES.

Mr. STOCKTON made a good Democratic State's rights speech in the Senate to-day, on the bill to authorize the New-York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company to land their submarine cables on the shores of the United States, which was called up by Mr. CHANDLER. Mr. STOCKTON held that Congress had no authority to legislate on the subject, it being, in his opinion, a matter entirely for the States and not for the General Government.

NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED.

The Senate went into Executive Session at 4 o'clock to-day, and in about an hour confirmed 150 nominations. If all of President GRANT's appointments should be as promptly acted on, and there is no reason to believe that they will not, the Senate will not be detained here many days after next Saturday, when Congress will in all probability adjourn. Some action, however, must be taken in the Alabama treaty, which is now on the table of the Senate. Mr. SUMNER, it is understood, has prepared a speech on the subject, but there is no doubt whatever of its almost unanimous rejection.

CUBAN ARRESTS.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, at its meeting this morning, heard a statement from EMILIA C. DEVILLANDER, daughter of CASANDRA, relative to the arrest of her father by the Spanish authorities. Subsequently she had an interview with the President on the same subject.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The United States Supreme Court have agreed to adjourn on Thursday of this week, until the first Monday of October. It is understood that they have determined in consultation that the decision on the legal-tender cases shall be postponed until that time.

THE DARIEN TREATY.

It is not true, as has been stated, that the Senate of Congress of the United States of Colombia have refused to ratify the Darien Ship Canal Treaty. A report against it has been made by the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs of that body. American interests are somewhat prejudiced in that quarter by the fact that the British Chargé d'Affaires at Bogota is the notorious BUNCH who was driven from Charleston by order of Mr. SEWARD for his rebel proclivities.

ARRIVALS IN THE CITY.

Among the arrivals in the city to-day is JOHN JAY, of New-York. He had an interview with the Secretary of State during the morning, and called at the White House this evening at the President's request, where he spent some time. His name is mentioned in connection with both the Austrian and English missions.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 5.

THE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

The Committee on Ways and Means to-day passed a resolution that they will personally examine into all the Custom-house warehouses, revenue offices, &c., and everything pertaining to Revenue laws, in order to enable them to frame a Tariff bill by the next session of Congress. They will probably extend their visits from Boston to San Francisco, commencing at New-York in May next.

THE COMMITTEE ON BANKING AND CURRENCY.

The Committee on Banking and Currency had before it this morning the bill in relation to currency. Mr. JONES, of Kentucky, moved to report it back to the House with a recommendation that it do pass. That motion was rejected. The Committee then proceeded to consider the proposed amendments to it, but had not completed its consideration when it adjourned.

THE CUBAN SPECIAL AGENT.

Various friends of Cuba proposed to serenade to-morrow night the Special Envoy or Agent of the Cubans; but they have abandoned the design, in accordance with his wishes, he not being willing, at this juncture, to accept such a compliment, nor prepared to respond to it.

SAN DOMINGO.

A certified copy of public works, grants, franchises, &c., has been received by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs from the Minister of the Interior of San Domingo, which shows that the statements made as to the land monopolies and other jobs are without foundation. The debt of the Republic on the 9th of March, 1869, did not exceed $600,000, including certain unadjusted claims.

For the seventy-five or eighty positions in the office of Superintendent of the United States Treasury, there are more than fifteen hundred applications.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.

The following officers have been ordered to report to the Navy Department for examination preliminary to promotion:

Lieutenants T. F. Jewell, D. C. Woodrow and E. M. Stedman. Masters George W. DeLong, W. W. Meade, W. H. Elliott, E. S. Houston, Benjamin Long, Geo. M. Book, J. A. Vaughan, L. A. Kingsley and John Haselett. Ensigns A. A. Blair, M. J. Moore, B. S. Richards, A. B. Carter, C. B. Gill, Wm. Waltz.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, April 5.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported without amendment the bill prescribing an oath of office to be taken by the persons who participated in the late rebellion, but who are not disqualified from holding office by the Fourteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It provides that when such persons shall be elected or appointed to any office of trust or honor under the United States Government and shall not be able to take the oath prescribed July 2, 1862, on account of participation in the late rebellion, they shall in lieu thereof, before entering upon the duties of office, take the oath prescribed in the act of July 11, 1868, prescribing "an oath of office to be taken by persons from whom legal disabilities shall have been removed.

HOT SPRINGS RESERVATION.

Mr. THURMAN from the same committee reported with amendments the bill for the sale of the Hot Springs Reservation in Arkansas.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. SCHURZ introduced a bill to create St. Louis and Cincinnati ports of entry, and to regulate the appraisement and inspection of imports there. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. SUMNER introduced a bill to prevent the Courts of the United States from enforcing contracts concerning slaves. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

Mr. CHANDLER called up the bill to authorize the New-York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company to land its submarine cable on the shores of the United States. The pending amendment was that offered by Mr. STOCKTON, authorizing any cable company, chartered by the laws of any State, to land its cable on the shores of the United States, subject ultimately to regulation by Congress.

Mr. STOCKTON declared himself opposed to all legislation upon the subject; but, if it must be legislated upon, he thought the bill ought first to go to the Committee on the Judiciary, because it involved the question of the right of Congress to authorize a foreign Company to land its cable on the shores of a State of this Union. He believed that Congress had no such right, nor any right to legislate for the making of telegraphs or railroads, but only the right to "regulate commerce" upon roads and canals when made by the States. In the maintenance of this view he made a long argument.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The expiration of the morning hour brought up the unfinished business of Saturday, the joint resolution to protect the interests of the United States in the Union Pacific Railroad.

Mr. CHANDLER moved to postpone it, and continue the consideration of the Cable bill. Lost.

The pending question was on the amendment offered by Mr. SHERMAN, authorizing the President of the United States to fix the point of junction of the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific Railroads, and for that purpose, if he deems it expedient, to appoint a Board of eminent citizens not exceeding five in number to examine and report in regard to the proper point of junction, and also in regard to the condition of each road, and what sum will be required to complete as a first-class railroad, according to law.

Mr. HOWARD opposed the amendment. He did not think it wise to invest the President with such an extraordinary discretion, nor did he believe that the President would be willing to exercise it.

Mr. SHERMAN agreed that the point of junction must be fixed on the general route contemplated by the Secretary of the Interior; but he objected to the amendment of the Senator from Michigan, because it required the Commissioner to select some point on a designated line, as if a line had been definitely fixed by law, which, in Mr. SHERMAN's judgment, was not the fact. It was well known to every Senator that the line claimed to have been fixed by the Secretary of the Interior was in dispute, and that charges had been made in connection with it, and were being investigated in the House of Representatives. It was now necessary that the point of junction should be fixed by some competent authority, because the rival roads were overlapping each other. The Union Pacific Company had already completed its road thirty miles beyond Ogden.

Mr. CONKLING—Which is the line fixed by the Secretary of the Interior?

Mr. SHERMAN said that that was one of the disputed points, but however that might be, the responsibility of fixing the point of junction might after all rest on the President of the United States, and he (Mr. SHERMAN) therefore thought it better to place that responsibility upon the President at once, and let him select fit Commissioners, than for Congress to select certain army officers and send them away from their important official duties to do this work.

Mr. HOWARD asked Mr. SHERMAN whether he did not consider that the letter of the Secretary of the Interior of the 28th of October last had the effect of the law.

Mr. SHERMAN had not examined the question closely, but he did not believe that the Secretary of the Interior had any right to do more toward fixing the exact route of the road than to approve the general line of survey.

Mr. CONKLING, assuming that the letter of the Secretary of the Interior had the force of law, was unable to see how more than one of these companies could lawfully claim bonds from the Government.

Mr. SHERMAN denied that the Secretary of the Interior could, by the approval of a map of questionable accuracy, fix the exact line of the road.

Mr. HOWARD knew that certain persons had been very active in representing at this and the last session of Congress that the map in question was a fraud and humbug, and could not be laid upon the ground at all; but he knew also that others contradicted these statements, and insisted that the line laid down on the map was a genuine line, capable of being laid on the ground, and he thought the difference of opinion a very important reason why Congress should interpose and settle the question.

Mr. THAYER said it would be a gross perversion of the legislative power to make any new law affecting the rights of these parties, when they were already engaged in litigation to determine their respective rights. He was not in favor of any legislation on the subject at this time, and he protested against any legislation which would give either party an advantage over the other.

Mr. NYE asked him why he wished to disturb the existing law?

Mr. THAYER replied that there was now a law fixing the point of junction.

Mr. NYE thought the Senator from Nebraska had better read the statute on the subject.

Mr. THAYER said he had read the statute. Neither road, he said, was building upon the line laid down on this map; and when that line was pretended to be located no portion of the road had been built.

Mr. CONKLING said that if neither Company was building on the line, then the question was purely an administrative one, and it would be the duty of the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury to refuse to issue subsidy bonds, upon the ground that the Companies, not having built upon this line, have not complied with the law. In this view the Executive could act without any further legislation.

Mr. THAYER said that that line was nearly an imaginary line, and that upon the map containing it, wrongfully filed, the Central Pacific Railroad Company had obtained from the Government bonds to the amount of $2,000,000.

Mr. CONKLING—Why wrongfully filed?

Mr. THAYER said he would enlighten the Senator from New-York in regard to that; and then had read as a part of his speech a long extract from an affidavit by General G. M. DODGE, Chief Engineer of the Union Pacific Railroad, asserting that the map in question was perfectly useless in an engineering point of view used for tracing the line, upon the ground that it was received in direct violation of the instructions of the Interior Department. Mr. THAYER, continuing his remarks, asked the Senator from Michigan whether he thought the Union Pacific Company was authorised to build its road on the same line, and to get bonds from the Government upon that road?

Mr. HOWARD replied that he certainly did think so.

Mr. THAYER thought that view preposterous. In his judgment, either the one road or the other must have the line, and the Central Pacific Company claimed it as its line.

Mr. HOWARD had never been informed that the Central Company claimed that line as its line exclusively, and he did not believe that it had ever done, or contemplated doing so.

Mr. THAYER—Why, then, did they file the map?

Mr. HOWARD—They filed a map because they had a right to suggest to the Secretary of the Interior what the line should be; the same right that existed in behalf of the Union Pacific Company. But the Secretary of the Interior having, under the act of 1866, given his consent and approval to it, it became the line for both these Companies.

Mr. THAYER said he had difficulty in believing that the Senator from Michigan was serious in that view. If he was right, why was the Central Pacific Company authorized to locate a line for the Union Pacific Railroad?

Mr. HOWARD denied that it was so authorized, and read a letter addressed to him by the Secretary of the Interior, of the 17th of March last, stating that the action of his predecessor, in approving the location made by the Central Pacific Company, was not designed to confer on that Company any exclusive right to build the road over the route in the map then filed, and that the equal right of each Company to continue the construction of its road in a continuous and complete line, until it should meet the other road, was not at all called in question or affected by that action.

Mr. COLE thought that if the controversy was to be determined according to the legal rights of the parties, as suggested by the Senator from Oregon, the determination of it belonged to another tribunal than Congress. He regarded it exceedingly [illegible] not think even now that it would be a serious obstacle in the way of the completion of the Pacific Railroad. He desired that the great halfway house on the road across the continent should be at or about Salt Lake, and he believed the interest and convenience of the public would be promoted by having it in that neighborhood. Both the Central and Union Companies had had certain difficulties to contend against, but he thought the latter had not taken so much trouble as the former to overcome the obstacles. In the mountain region, for instance, the California Company had built stone sheds over its road for twenty-five or thirty miles to protect the road from obstructions by the snow, while on the other road no such precautions had been taken, and great inconvenience and delay had occurred in consequence. The Central Company, he said, was exerting itself to the utmost to reach the proper point for a junction, and he believed that this controversy would soon be settled.

Mr. STEWART called attention to the extraordinary character of the House bill, which he said proposed to put the Union Pacific Railroad Company on wheels and move it about the country to exempt it from the jurisdiction of the local Courts, and give it other extraordinary privileges contrary to the general rule of law on that subject. He thought, however, that he had in his possession a document which explained the whole affair. Here Mr. STEWART read a paper in the nature of an agreement, dated Oct. 15, 1867, and signed by OLIVER AMES, JNO. B. ALLEY and others, and executed before DANIEL M. GILLETT, notary public, New-York, the exact purport of which was not understood by the reporters. He had, also, another document, (holding up a yellow-covered pamphlet,) which alleged that Mr. JAMES FISK "was a great rascal." He did not know Mr. FISK, but for his present purpose it was not necessary to question the truth of this allegation. This pamphlet further stated that "this Mr. FISK had sought to arraign the Union Pacific Railroad Company before a very rascally Court." This might also be true, although he had looked over the record of the proceedings of this Court in this matter, and had failed to find anything to warrant the allegation. But what did this rascal FISK allege in this rascally Court? First; that there was a conspiracy between a certain lot of people calling themselves the Credit Mobilier, a ring inside the Pacific Railroad Company, to swindle all the rest of the world, and FISK certainly made out a pretty strong case. He alleged that the Credit Mobilier had made enormous dividends by using the Pacific Railroad, which the members of the Credit Mobilier admitted. FISK also went so far as to charge that certain members of Congress were interested in this arrangement; and he (STEWART) had heard it stated that members of the House Committee on the Pacific Railroad were interested, not only in that road but also in the Credit Mobilier, and had never heard it denied.

Mr. DAVIS—Who are the Credit Mobilier? Give us the names.

Mr. STEWART—I don't know them. I know some of them, but I don't know all of them. That is what Mr. FISK proposes to let us know if we let him alone. [Laughter.] But that is not so material. It is alleged that they are incumbering the road with contracts ahead for their own benefit. Now it may be that the Government has an important interest in this matter. I don't care so much about these people making these large dividends, providing the Government and the country get a good road, and provided the work is in the hands of men who will not become insolvent; but I have heard it stated, and that by Senators who pretended to know something about it, that this Union Pacific Company was liable to become insolvent any day. If that should come to pass, the result would be that the first mortgage bonds would be foreclosed, and the Government lien would be cut off, and this Congress would be held responsible for it.

At 4 o'clock, Mr. STEWART gave way for a motion to go into Executive Session, which was carried. After the Executive Session, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Under the call of States, bills and joint resolutions were introduced, read twice and referred as follows:

By Mr. ELA—To provide for printing the Congressional Record.

By Mr. JENCKES—To establish a Department of Justice.

By Mr. NEGLEY—To reduce the number of the officers of the army.

By Mr. WELKER—To provide a uniform system of education for public schools in the District of Columbia; also, to provide a Criminal Code for the District of Columbia.

By Mr. LAWRENCE—To establish a Law Department; also, to preserve the purity of elections and the right of free discussion in the unreconstructed States.

By Mr. TRIMBLE—For an appropriation of $100,000 for a Custom-house, Post Office, &c., at Paducah, Ky.

By Mr. ARNELL—Making a regrant of lands to the Nashville and Decatur Railroad.

By Mr. SMITH, of Tennessee—For an appropriation of $200,000 for a Custom-house and Post Office at Memphis, Tenn.

By Mr. JULIAN—Declaring the lands constituting the Fort Cullom military reservation in Colorado subject to preëmption for homesteads.

THE CHEROKEE INDIAN TREATIES.

Mr. JULIAN, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a joint resolution to annul and declare void so much of the Cherokee Indian Treaties of August, 1866, and June, 1868, as authorizes the sale of their lands, and all contracts, &c., purporting to be made thereunder, such lands to be subject to settlement, entry and sale at $1 25 per acre. The joint resolution was passed—yeas 88, nays 35.

THE CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE BUSTEED.

Mr. SHANKS offered a resolution referring to the Judiciary Committee the charges against RICHARD BUSTEED, District Judge of the United States for Alabama, and the testimony heretofore taken, with instructions to continue the investigation, and with power to act through a sub-committee during the recess and to send for persons and papers.

Mr. SCOFIELD moved to lay the resolution on the table. Negatived—yeas 52, nays 67.

The resolution was then adopted—67 to 47.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY CURRENCY ACT.

Mr. COBURN introduced a bill supplementary to the Currency act of July 21, 1864.

While it was being read the morning hour expired, and the bill went over till Monday next.

SENATE BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

The House then, at 1:15 o'clock, proceeded to the business on the Speaker's table, and disposed thereof as follows:

The Senate joint resolution for printing of the Agricultural Report of 20,000 copies for the Senate, 150,000 for the House, and 25,000 for the Commissioner of Agriculture, was referred to the Committee on Printing.

The Senate bill to provide for the pavement of Pennsylvania-avenue was referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

The Senate bill for the relief from political disabilities of JAMES C. TAYLOR, of Virginia. Referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

The Senate bill to carry into effect the Convention of July 4, 1868, between the United States and Mexico for the adjustment of claims. Passed.

The Senate bill to continue in force the act to extend the charter of Washington City. Passed.

The Senate bill for the relief of S. and H. SAYLE. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE CANVASSERS.

Mr. PAINE, from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution for the appointment of a Select Committee to investigate the charges made by the Board of State Canvassers of South Carolina, in reference to the system of terrorism, conscriptions and assassinations, &c., which prevented a fair canvass in the Third and Fourth Congressional Districts of South Carolina at the last election, to sit at such times and places as it may determine, in Washington and South Carolina, with power to send for persons, papers, &c.

After a brief discussion, Mr. PAINE withdrew the resolution for the present.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

Mr. BURDETT presented the report of the Committee on Elections in the contested election case from the Fourth District of South Carolina, declaring A. S. WALLACE entitled prima facie to the seat, and gave notice that he would call it up for action to-morrow.

Mr. RANDALL presented a minority report on the same case.

THE TENURE-OF-OFFICE BILL SIGNED.

A message from the President announced that he had approved and signed the Tenure-of-Office bill.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S TABLE.

The House again went to the business on the Speaker's table, and disposed thereof as follows:

SELMA AND GADSDEN RAILROAD.

The Senate bill to revive the grant of lands for a railroad in Alabama, from Selma to Gadsden, and to confirm it to the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad Company. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

GUARDIANS FOR MINOR INDIAN CHILDREN.

The Senate joint resolution authorizing the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to appoint guardians or trustees for minor Indian children who may be entitled to pensions or bounties. Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

The Senate joint resolution extending the time to construct a railroad from the St. Croix River or Lake, to the west end of Lake Superior and to Bayfield.

Mr. JULIAN opposed its passage, and moved its reference to the Committee on Public Lands, with an amendment restricting the sale of the lands to actual settlers.

Mr. WASHBURN, of Wisconsin, advocated the bill, and said that the opposition to it came from a rival interest, the Pennsylvania Railroad. He hoped it would not be referred, as reference would delay for twelve months longer the construction of the road. He repeated, in reply to a remark by Mr. LAWRENCE, that the principal opposition to the bill came from the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and said that company had a heavy lobby around the House.

Mr. JULIAN disclaimed all knowledge of any opposition coming from that quarter. His opposition was in the interest of poor men who wanted to settle on the public lands.

Mr. WASHBURN declared that the actual settlers in the counties through which the railroad was to be built were anxious for the passage of the bill.

Mr. JULIAN expressed his surprise at the assurance of the gentleman from Wisconsin in making the statement. It had not been denied in the Senate that the actual settlers were opposed to the renewal of the grant.

Mr. WASHBURN—I deny it unequivocally. The land is in my district, and I ought to know.

Mr. JULIAN—The talk about the lobby is the old story of "stop thief." The roaring of the lobby has been on the side of the gentleman from Wisconsin. It does not lie in the gentleman's mouth to talk about the roaring of the lobby.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, opposed the bill because he had set himself against all railroad subsidies, whether inland or money. He said this road was unnecessary, as there was a railroad partially built, starting from Lake Superior, fourteen miles from the terminus of this road, and running to the Mississippi River. He did not think it well to take two millions of acres of the best timber lands in the West for the purpose of building up a rival road.

THE INDIAN APPROPRIATION BILL.

Mr. DAWES, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the Indian Appropriation bill with the Senate amendment, which was made the special order for to-morrow.

RECONSTRUCTION OF VIRGINIA.

Mr. FARNSWORTH introduced a joint resolution authorizing the submission of the Virginia Constitution to a vote of the people, and authorizing the election of the State officers provided by that Constitution and of Members of Congress. Referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS.

Mr. BURR offered a resolution directing an investigation into the elections in the Third and Fourth Districts of South Carolina. Referred to the Committee on Elections.

The House then, at 4:30, took a recess until 7:30, the evening session to be for general debate only.

EVENING SESSION.

The House met again at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. BLAIR, of Michigan, in the Chair, for general debate.

REFORM IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Mr. JENCKES addressed the House on the subject of reform in the Civil Service. He said that while every one admitted the necessity of reform, no one had brought forward any measures to accomplish it. He, therefore, pressed his, although at all times willing to accept a better. His bill dropped the machinery of a new department, and simply proposed a Board of Examiners, who would be the civil staff of the Administration for the purpose of ascertaining who were fit persons for office. It did not interfere with the political offices, but applied only to the subordinate. He gave reasons why success may be hoped for in this attempt, and showed how this mode of selection was consistent with the original practice and theory of the Government. By the present mode, no actual judgment was obtained upon the fitness of candidates, the choice depending upon patronage and favor, and political and personal influence. He described the evils growing out of the intermingling of Legislative and Executive duties, and showed how they were kept distinct during the first forty years of the Government.

ST. DOMINGO.

Mr. ORTH, next addressed the House in advocacy of a resolution which he had offered at the close of the last session, for the admission into the Union of the territory of St. Domingo on the following conditions:

First, That the people of St. Domingo should adopt a republican form of Territorial Government by deputies in convention assembled. Second, That the action of the people should be with the consent and coöperation of the existing Government of that Republic. Third, That such form of government should be thereafter submitted to Congress for its approval. Fourth, that the admission of the Territory should be with a view to the ultimate establishment of a State Government, republican in form, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, and with the approval of Congress. The object of the resolution had been fully accomplished in having brought the subject before Congress and the people for consideration.

The friends of the measure did not shrink from such consideration, feeling satisfied that the practical sense of the people would easily comprehend and appreciate the national importance of so valuable an acquisition. He proceeded to comment upon the advantages—political, commercial and material—of the acquisition of St. Domingo.

Mr. NIBLACK asked his colleague whether he considered an increase of the colored population of this country desirable? If so, he suggested a modification of the Naturalization laws, so as to allow people other than white to emigrate and be naturalized.

Mr. ORTH suggested that his colleague should introduce such a bill.

Mr. NIBLACK would do so under no circumstances. He simply wished to understand his colleague's position on that point.

Mr. ORTH replied that if his colleague did not understand his position on that point after being with him in Congress four years, he could not now undertake to enlighten him.

Mr. ORTH concluded his remarks, and then the House, at 9:30 o'clock, adjourned.

CONNECTICUT.

Connecticut Follows New-Hampshire with a Republican Victory.

Marshall Jewell Elected Governor by a Small Majority.

Three Congressmen and a Majority in the Legislature Probably Secured.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HARTFORD, Monday, April 6—1:30 A. M.

The State election passed quietly, with a fair day and a light vote. At this hour the returns are still incomplete, there being twenty towns yet to hear from, but the Democrats concede the election of MARSHALL JEWELL, Republican, for Governor, over JAMES ENGLISH, Democrat, and the present incumbent of the office, by a small majority.

JULIUS L. STRONG, Republican, is elected to Congress from the First District by 781 over JAMES DIXON, Democrat. In the Second District it is claimed that STEPHEN W. KELLOGG, Republican, is elected, defeating JAMES F. BABCOCK, Democrat, the Republicans gaining 624 in New-Haven over the vote of last Spring. In the Third District, H. H. STARKWEATHER, Republican, is reëlected by a good majority. In the Fourth District there is no doubt that WILLIAM H. BARNUM, Democrat, is reëlected by about 500 majority. This gives a Republican gain of the State ticket and two Congressmen. The Legislature is close, but probably a small Republican majority.

The Republicans gain largely in Hartford and New-Haven Counties. The Democrats gain in Windham and Fairfield Counties.

It is said, though it seems incredible, that JAMES GALLAGHER, Chairman of the State Democratic Committee, was defeated in his own city for Mayor by 85 votes. Last Spring New-Haven gave 2,258 majority for ENGLISH.

Associated Press Dispatch.

HARTFORD, Monday, April 5—10 P. M.

Returns are coming in well for the Republicans, indicating the election of the State ticket by about one thousand majority, and the election of STRONG over DIXON for Congress in the First District.

Returns from forty towns give 521 net Republican gain over last Spring's vote.

The Hartford Times (Dem.) says: "The vote of the State will fall 10,000 behind that of last April. Hartford falls off over 400 and New-Haven over 600. The result on Governor is close, with chances in favor of JEWELL. The Democrats elect Congressmen in the Second and Fourth, and the Republicans in the First and Third Districts. The Legislature shows considerable Democratic gains, but it will probably be Republican in both branches by reduced majorities."

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Ship "Foster" Once More—Fat-Boiling Establishments—Cleaning the Streets—Miscellaneous Matters.

The Metropolitan Board of Health met yesterday afternoon, President G. B. LINCOLN in the chair.

THE "FOSTER" CASE.

Commissioner STONE called for the report which Sanitary Superintendent HARRIS was recently directed to make, as to who authorized the landing in this City of the passengers of the ship James Foster, Jr., who had been exposed to typhus fever during the last passage of that vessel to this port.

A lengthy discussion followed, in which a majority of the Board expressed their desire that the report should be withheld until next week, in order to afford the Sanitary Superintendent an opportunity to obtain more definite information on the subject than that which he then possessed. Commissioner STONE insisted upon having the report, as far as completed, immediately, and it was thereupon ordered to be printed.

The report was exceedingly lengthy, and was, substantially, as follows:

None were landed from the ship James Foster, Jr., at Castle Garden, who at that time were sick with the fever. Ninety-seven well persons who had been exposed to the disease were landed. These registered themselves as intending to depart immediately for eleven different States and Canada, but it was afterward ascertained that from fifty to sixty of that number had taken lodgings in this City and Brooklyn, where they have since remained. Only seven of the ninety-seven were seized with the fever after they had left the ship. Fifteen others of the same company were subsequently sent to the hospital, suffering from various diseases consequent upon starvation and other cruelties perpetrated upon them during the voyage. The houses wherein the fifty or sixty referred to above were lodging had been kept under strict sanitary observance by the authorities to this time, and no cases of sickness resulting from contact with them had been seen.

The report concluded in these words:

The history and meaning of the case is simply this: Barbarity, starvation and the infection of typhus fever had killed a great number of the people on the James Foster, Jr., and after the Health Officer had sent forty-eight sick and infected persons to Ward's Island hospitals, he officially released the remaining ninety-seven emigrants, and the ship from all restraints of Quarantine. The Board of Health having no agent or officer at the Quarantine station, were not informed of the fact at the time of such release. The Sanitary Superintendent of the Metropolitan District having no power to command or direct the Health Officer, could only inform the Quarantine office, and the owners and consignees of the ship, and the general agent of the Commissioners of Emigration at the emigrant landing, that the Board of Health would require that its official permit should be obtained for the landing of the emigrant passengers, and that such permit would be based upon the Health Officer's assurances of safety to land them. Such information was given to all these persons on the 10th of March (the day previous to the landing.) The events which followed, and the testimony which has come into our hands, show that each person concerned in the release and transfer of the ninety-seven emigrants from Quarantine asserts that he was not responsible for their landing. The sanitary code was openly disregarded in this instance by all the parties concerned in the transportation and landing of the passengers; but as this is the only case since the organization of the Board in which a permit of the Board of Health for an emigrant passenger ship to leave Quarantine, or where any restraint upon emigrant passengers has been demanded by the Board, it is not strange that such views of irresponsibility were entertained in this case. The Health Officer had, under the laws, (see act of 1868, sections 24 and 53,) a right to send forward the entire company of passengers of that ship to the care and sanitary safekeeping of the Commissioners of Emigration, the sick to the hospital on Ward's Island, and all others (those exposed to the infection) to whatever place that officer and the Commissioners of Emigration agreed upon, this Board of Health permitting, whether such place should be Ward's Island, Castle Garden, or some other spot on shore within the Metropolitan District. The Health Officer declares that he did not elect any particular spot for the sanitary care of the ninety-seven passengers in this instance, but under regulations that were practically instructions those passengers were landed without the Board's permit.

Finally, Superintendent HARRIS recommended that in the future the Health Officer should be instructed to notify him, officially, by telegram, and also by letter, at least two hours prior to releasing any ship from quarantine, of his intention so to do, in order to furnish an opportunity for preventing the landing of passengers without the required permit from the Board of Health.

After the report had been read, Commissioner SWINBURN, in self-justification, addressed the Board, and in doing so quoted the sections 24 and 53 of the Quarantine laws, wherein it is directed that,

"Typhus or ship fever patients shall be sent to, and supported at, Ward's Island."

And that,

"The Commissioners of Emigration shall, by the order and direction of the Health Officer, receive and take charge of all passengers arriving at the port of New-York, who shall have been exposed to the infection or contagion of small-pox or ship fever, to be kept elsewhere than on Staten Island, and the said Commissioners of Emigration, for the purpose of defraying the expenses therefor, shall be entitled to receive from the owners, masters, consignees or agents of the vessels arriving at the port of New-York, the sum of twenty-five cents for each passenger so arriving, to be collected in the same manner that commutation moneys are collected by said Commissioners of Emigration."

Thus authorized by law, said Commissioner SWINBURN, the Deputy Health Officer, in the absence of his superior, sent the fever patients, and those who were evidently in the incipient stages of the disease, to Ward's Island, and having no authority to detain those of the passengers who were well, he allowed them with the ship to proceed to the City. He did not give permission to land, however, but told the Captain to anchor off the Battery, until the Board of Health had given the necessary permit. When the vessel had reached the Battery, several tugs approached and took off the passengers, the Captain of the Foster not objecting.

Commissioner SWINBURNE said that he was glad that this matter had been brought before the Board in this manner, so that the Commissioners would be led to see that something should be done to rectify a serious error in the Health laws, as they now exist. It had always been the policy of the Board, he said, and one to which it was well known that he had always been opposed, that passengers who had been exposed to ship-fever on board of vessels should be allowed to land, and to distribute themselves wherever they pleased, provided, only, that they showed no symptoms of affection of the disease. This policy had been advocated and carried out, under the impression that it was not dangerous to the public health. He believed it to be a very dangerous procedure, and recommended that the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections be requested to select a place where such persons should be detained until there was no doubt of it being safe to allow them to land.

A lengthy and warm discussion followed the remarks of Commissioner SWINBURNE, after which it was resolved to submit the matter to the consideration of the Sanitary Committee and the Counsel for suggestions as to the most effectual remedy to be adopted.

FAT-BOILING ESTABLISHMENTS.

Lengthy reports were received from Sanitary Superintendent HARRIS and his assistant, Dr. MOREAU MORRIS, regarding the condition of the thirteen licensed fat-melting establishments now in operation in this City.

Dr. MORRIS mentioned in a supplementary report that the business of fat-boiling at Nos. 611 and 613 West Thirty-eighth-street, and No. 37 Abbatoir-place, was being conducted in violation of the health ordinances. The attorney was instructed to notify the offenders, so that a hearing might be had and the evil remedied.

The reports were referred to the Sanitary Committee.

CLEANING THE STREETS.

The following letter was read on the subject of cleaning the streets, in reply to one written to the Commissioner by the President of the Board of Health:

DEPARTMENT FOR STREET CLEANING,
NO. 300 MULBERRY-STREET,
NEW-YORK, March 31, 1869.

SIR: I have the honor to return herewith a copy of the resolution of the Metropolitan Board of Health concerning the condition of the streets. Permit me to say that the resolution was entirely unnecessary, and had the Board known what was really being done, in my opinion the resolution would not have been offered. For your own information I beg to state that not a moment of favorable time remains unimproved—that the sanctity of the Sabbath has been invaded—that even on last Sabbath, though it was Easter, and some of our force for that reason positively refused to work, Italians were engaged, and they worked part of the day and all night. I mention this to show you that no further inspiration is required to cause this Department to do its duty.

With great respect, yours, &c.,
W. H. PERRY.

To Hon. G. B. LINCOLN, President Metropolitan Board of Health.

It was resolved to hold special meetings of the Board, hereafter, on Thursday of each week. The Board finally adjourned until Monday next.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

Before Judge Blatchford.

The Judge announced that he had expected to devote this month to the trial of cases before a jury, but owing to the change in the District-Attorney's office, that order of business would not be carried out, and he would sit for a fortnight in the Circuit Court, to dispose of cases on the General Calendar.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—EASTERN DISTRICT.

Before Judge Benedict.

The following-named persons were arraigned in Court yesterday, and pleaded guilty to having carried on retail liquor business without having paid special tax, and they were fined as stated: John Buckley, $10; James Nevins, $75; F. Chassells, $75; Owen Moore, $75, and C. F. Ball, 75.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT—BROOKLYN.

Before Commissioner Jones.

The examination of the third mate of the James Foster, Jr., on the charge of murder on the high seas, has been set down for to-morrow morning.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE.

Before Commissioner Osborn.

Farman S. Tucker was arraigned several weeks ago on a charge of blackmailing Mr. Ray, the distiller. Mr. Ray was arraigned on a charge of defrauding the Government by avoiding the payment of taxes. Both cases have been examined on the same evidence, and yesterday the summing up took place.

Mr. Jonchimson, for Mr. Ray, claimed that the testimony of five disinterested witnesses to the same demands made by Tucker on Ray, and to the same payments, was sufficient to establish the case against Tucker. Mr. Benedict, for Mr. Tucker, argued that the witnesses were not disinterested, and that their stories were contradictory. The hole in the pane of glass through which Winfold and Kempner swore that they looked at the same time, was so small (the pane was produced) that two people could not look through it at once. Moreover, when the pane was brought to the Commissioner's office the hole had been enlarged to make the story seem more probable. Quin's memoranda, the counsel said, were manifestly manufactured for the occasion. He argued that it was incredible that a blackmailer should be so foolish as to operate in the presence of witnesses. It was a suspicious circumstance that the charge was not made by Mr. Ray immediately after the demands of Mr. Tucker, but a month later, on the day that Mr. Ray heard that Mr. Tucker was on the point of preferring charges against him for revenue frauds. The little Tucker boy's testimony contradicted the testimony of other witnesses, and had itself the appearance of truth. Mr. Botner's memorandum showed signs of erasures. Mr. Tucker's story was simple and straightforward; Mr. Ray's charge was supported by falsehood, perjury and forgery.

Mr. Jonchimson argued that Mr. Ray's distillery was conducted honestly, and that Mr. Ray had no motive for getting Mr. Tucker out of the way. The counsel for the defence had not looked at the case as a whole, but had combatted the evidence only in detail. That Mr. Benedict's charges of forgery and perjury were not pertinent, because the corpus delicti, the taking of money, was admitted by the defence.

The Commissioner reserved his decision.

Before Commissioner Betts.

Bernard Hess was arraigned for blackmailing a cigar dealer named Burlinghoff, in 1867. The defence brought their witnesses, one of whom swore that it was not Burlinghoff's store at the time mentioned as the date of the blackmailing; another swore that Burlinghoff was not a good man, and the third swore that Mr. Burlinghoff had cursed Hess and expressed regret that he had not chopped him with an ax, and that Mr. Burlinghoff had used similar language. The case was adjourned.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM—BROOKLYN.

Before Judge Gilbert.

JURISDICTION OF CORONERS.

Arguments were made yesterday for and against the writ of prohibition, the design of which was to prevent Coroner Flynn, of New-York, exercising jurisdiction by holding an inquest on the body of Lockwood, the fugitive from Sing Sing State Prison. The motion to have the writ ordered was denied and the writ dismissed, on the ground that Coroner Flynn had jurisdiction in the case alluded to.

SUPREME COURT—GENERAL TERM—APRIL 5.

Before Chief Justice Clerke and Justices Sutherland and Peckham.

The National Park Bank vs. The Ninth National Bank.—This was a motion by the plaintiff to advance the above cause as a preferred cause on the General Term Calendar under the provisions of section [illegible] of the Revised Statutes, (5th edition,) page [illegible]. These provisions are that "all issues of fact and law in suits against any corporation or joint stock association for banking purposes, issuing bank notes, or any kind of paper credit to circulate as money, shall be preferred on the calendars." The Court held that the defendant came within this description, and that the cause was a preferred cause.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Judge Bedford.

The April term of the Court of General Sessions commenced yesterday, Judge BEDFORD occupying the bench in the place of Recorder Hackett, who is not well. The rolls of Grand and Petit Jurors were called. Thirteen of the latter had excuses to offer, and ninety-seven were fined $25 each for non-attendance. Only twenty-three were ready for duty, and as the law requires the presence of twenty-four, it was necessary to adjourn the Court to this morning.

THE MARCH TERM OF THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

During this term eighty-three cases were disposed of. Of the convictions seventeen were for grand larceny, sixteen for burglary, nine for petit larceny, six for assault, four for robbery, four for false pretences, three for manslaughter, two for forgery, two for picking pockets, and one for carrying concealed weapons. The punishment of the burglars varied from 2 years and 6 months to 15 years in the State Prison; of the thieves from 6 months in the Penitentiary to 5 years in State Prison, of the robbers from 5 to 12 years in prison, and of those who were guilty of manslaughter from 6 months in the Penitentiary to 7 years in prison. The whole number sent to State Prison was thirty-five, one a woman; the Penitentiary received eighteen, including two women; eighteen were tried and acquitted, and in nine cases judgment was postponed. The sum total of the sentences inflicted amounts to 214 years and 7 months.

MONDAY, April 5—P. M.

Money continues very dear in Wall-street and the heavy Banks are generally pleading poverty, though a portion of this class of lenders are said to be doing a fair business at the current extra rate of Interest, which, under the liberal provisions of the National Banking law, they claim they are at liberty to accept. Whether this be strictly so or not, it is satisfactory to the Brokers to know, in seasons of extreme dearness, like the present, that they can buy Money for a price at Bank as well as on the Street. The rates to-day, after 12 o'clock M., (up to which hour no unusual demand was developed,) were from 7 ₱ cent. Gold Interest to one-sixteenth @ one-eighth ₱ cent. a day in Currency, on call; that is, in most cases, returnable to-morrow. The Discount Brokers are paying from 10 to 14 ₱ cent. per annum on prime and good Merchant paper of short date. And 30@60 day contracts were made at the Government Board of the Stock Exchange in the Public Funds, 5-20s of 1865@1867 at the equivalent of 10@12 ₱ cent. per annum. At the close of the day there were no signs apparent of an easier state of things to-morrow, or for some days to come. The Exchange at New-Orleans is more favorable for New-York, and some Currency is coming every day from Philadelphia. These influences may partially tell in the course of the week, and the probability is that the next Bank return will show more steadiness than the last.

The Foreign Exchanges were advanced to 108@108¼ ₱ cent. on London 60 days, and 108¾@109¼ ₱ cent. short sight this morning, and some business was done at the inside figures, but not to a large extent. The leading, or what are known as the standard drawers, placed their 60-day rate at 108¼ at the close of the day, and other Bankers were not inclined to press their Bills on sale.

The following official notice appears this Afternoon from the Treasury Office:

UNITED STATES TREASURY, NEW-YORK, April 5, 1869.

Coupons for interest due May 1, 1869, will now be received for examination, and the same will be cashed, if desired, on a rebate of the interest from the day of payment to May 1, at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, in coin. Where twenty or more coupons are presented, they must be accompanied by a schedule, showing number and amount of each coupon.

H. H. VAN DYCK, Assistant-Treasurer.

In the Stock and Gold Exchange markets the same anomalous or contradictory state of things prevailed to-day as at the close of last week—contradictory, we mean, as compared with the sharp condition and restricted supply of the Money market. Nearly everything went up at the early Boards, and the New-York and some of the Western Railways, and all the Public Funds and Gold were actually buoyant. When the difficulty and cost of borrowing Money for the settlements of the day came to be realized, there was some reaction from extreme prices—¼@⅜ ₱ cent. on 5-20s, ¾@1 ₱ cent. on New-York Central, and ½@¾ ₱ cent. on the Western Roads and Pacific Mail; Gold, on the other hand, further advancing to 131⅝@131¾ ₱ cent. Among the Miscellaneous Shares there was a further advance in Western Union Telegraph, and the Bull movement in the Stock, based upon the known large increase in the traffic of the Company, has assumed more confident proportions than for eighteen months past. The Cash price at 2:30 P. M. was 40⅝ ₱ cent., and 30-day buyers paid 41½ ₱ cent. In the Southern State Bonds there was an improvement of ½@¾ ₱ cent. in new Tennessees, while the new North Carolinas, as on Friday, showed weakness, and lost part of the recovery noticed on Saturday. In other descriptions the changes were not notable. After Bank hours the general market for the Railways, Pacific Mail, &c., showed an upward course again, and the Public Funds, notwithstanding some reported efforts to hammer down the 5-20s of 1865-67, were steadier. The old 5-20s of 1862 were not so strong as in the forenoon, although the quotations came higher from the other side than on Saturday.

After the late Boards broke up the following quotations were made, as compared with Saturday afternoon:

The day's business at the office of the United States Assistant Treasurer was as follows: Total receipts, $1,300,354; total payments, $695,396; balance, $87,494,368. The receipts include, for Customs, $405,000; for gold notes, $63,-000.

The Rochester Chronicle of April 3 says:

"It is said that our townsman, Hon. FREEMAN CLARKE, is to be President of a New-York bank of $5,000,000 capital, to be engaged in conducting foreign exchange with London and the Continent."

The Mark Lane Express of March 22 remarks:

"For the most part the weather of the past week has continued seasonably cold and dry, with frosty nights, which have greatly helped to pulverize the soil and prepare it for sowing where this has not been accomplished. So serviceable and timely has been the check that the forwardness of the fruit trees has been much reduced, and an unusually fine show of pear blossom near to opening has become common, without any sign of damage. The Wheat recently thrashed has come better to hand, and a good measure of farm labor has been got through. But the long range of dull markets culminated last week in one of the heaviest declines on Wheat since harvest—say 4s. to 4s. ₱ quarter, in London, without the slightest symptoms as yet of any reaction, although the country fall is not equal to this, Wheat as Spring corn ruled relatively high. Wheat since sale, but since the general reduction in prices, this support has been withdrawn, and those who made the earliest sales, which certainly sold well, have very good reason to congratulate themselves. Nothing can now revive the market but the refusal of farmers to sell, or the stoppage of foreign import. It seems very improbable, however, that both should happen together; but if they should a temporary rally somewhere would be the result. There is nothing yet in the aspect of the crops to cause much disquietude, the general reduction not so favorable, but with an evident surplus on last year's crop of Wheat, both in America and Europe, these countries, from money pressure, are likely to send on fair shipments; still the amount seems likely to be lessened by the diminution in the rates, as some will prefer taking the chance of another harvest to making large sacrifices. Thus Hamburg, though cheaper, has not equally fallen, having received fair orders from Portugal; but with foreign Wheat mixed at Danzig being scarce is not to be had under 55s. cost and freight, merchants there thinking Wheat has reached its lowest. In Paris again, which of late has taken almost the lead in a decline, there is more firmness exhibited; while there has been very little change in Belgium, Holland, and the interior of Germany. New-York reports a further decline, not as the consequence of present receipts but of future anticipations.

"The arrivals off the coast since the 12th of March were only two cargoes, of which one cargo was Wheat and one Dari."

INDIANAPOLIS AND VINCENNES RAILROAD COMPANY

First Mortgage Forty-year Bonds.

Interest Seven Per Cent. per Annum,

Payable February and August, in the City of New-York. Guaranteed, jointly and severally, by

THE INDIANAPOLIS, CINCINNATI AND LA FAYETTE RAILROAD CO.
THE PITTSBURG, CINCINNATI AND ST. LOUIS RAILWAY CO.
THE COLUMBUS, CHICAGO AND INDIANA CENTRAL RAILWAY CO.;

The latter guarantee being indorsed by the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Co.

Issue restricted to $1,700,000 on the entire road, which is equal to about $15,000 per mile. This road is now approaching its completion; it traverses a rich and populous district in the State of Indiana, and will soon constitute an important link in the Trunk Line, extending from the Atlantic cities to the Southwest, via Cairo.

The intrinsic value of the road itself, combined with the guarantee of four other important railroad companies, one of which ranks financially among the strongest railroad corporations in the world, render these bonds among the safest investments on the market.

We confidently recommend them as a most desirable security for parties investing for themselves or in trust for others.

Also, Shares in the Capital Stock of said Railway Company, on which Six per Cent. per annum and one half the net earnings of the road, in excess of that amount, is guaranteed to the holders in perpetuity by the same railroad corporations.

A limited quantity of these choice securities are offered for sale on favorable terms by

GEORGE OPDYKE & CO., BANKERS,

NO. 25 NASSAU-STREET.

$1,000,000 GOLD.

SIX PER CENT. FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE ST. LOUIS AND ST. JOSEPH RAILROAD OF MISSOURI.

Coupons payable May and Nov. 1, at the Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., in the City of New-York. The principal, as well as the interest, is payable in coin. Length of road, 72½ miles, from the City of St. Joseph to Lexington, making a through line, with the connection now completed from Omaha to St. Louis, and, on completion of the Union and Central Pacific Roads, with San Francisco. The total amount of bonds, all that can be issued, is $1,000,000—less than $14,000 per mile—which are secured by a first mortgage on the entire property of the Company. A portion of the road is now in successful operation; the balance is being rapidly constructed, and will be completed during the Summer.

The Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. are the trustees for the bonds, who receive the money and pay it over to the Company on the completion of each section of the road.

The road is being built entirely with cash, economically and in a substantial manner. The Directors and officers are all men of the highest standing and responsibility. The counties through which it runs are the most populous and richest agricultural districts in the State, making the security first-class—one that we recommend to our friends as a desirable investment, equal, in our estimation, to any we have ever sold. The California-Pacific 7 per cent. Bonds were closed out by us in January last, and are now selling at an advance of from 5 to 6 per cent. and are in good demand at the price. We confidently look for a corresponding, if not greater, advance in the St. Louis and St. Joseph 6 per cent. Bonds.

The Company, through the undersigned, offer a limited amount at 87½, and accrued interest in currency, reserving the right to advance the price without notice. Government and other marketable securities received at market rates. For pamphlets and further particulars, apply to CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday, Mr. SCHURZ introduced a bill to create St. Louis and Cincinnati ports of entry, and to regulate the appraisement and inspection of imports there. Referred to the Committee on Commerce. Mr. CHANDLER called up the bill to authorize the New-York, Newfoundland, and London Telegraph Company to land its submarine cable on the shores of the United States. The pending question was the amendment offered by Mr. FROCKTON, authorizing any cable company chartered by the laws of any State to land its cable on the shores of the United States, subject ultimately to regulation by Congress. The expiration of the morning hour brought up as unfinished business of Saturday the joint resolution to protect the interests of the United States in the Union Pacific Railroad. The immediate question was the appointment of a Board of eminent citizens, not exceeding five in number, to examine and report in regard to the proper point of junction with the Central Pacific Railroad. A long debate ensued, in which Senators CHANDLER, HOWARD, SHERMAN, CONKLING, WILLIAMS, STEWART, TRUMBULL and THAYER participated. After confirming a number of nominations in Executive Session, the Senate adjourned.

In the House a number of bills were introduced. Among them one by Mr. NEGLEY to reduce the number of army officers. Mr. STEVENS introduced a bill providing that the law constituting eight hours a day's work shall be construed as to give full wages, and one by Mr. REEVES to allow prize money to the officers and crew of the Monitor for the fight with the Merrimac in Hampton Roads. Mr. SHANKS offered a resolution referring to the Judiciary Committee the charges against RICHARD BUSTEED, District Judge of the United States for Alabama. It was adopted. The House took a recess at 4:30, and met again in the evening at 7:30. Mr. JENCKES addressed the House on the reform in the Civil Service, and at 9:30 an adjournment took place.

Colonel STANTON, the new State Auditor of Virginia, appointed by General WEBB, countersigned the warrants for the clerks of the office yesterday. The State Treasurer has refused to pay them because they were drawn to the 1st of April. He claims that they were no de facto clerks after the removal of the heads of departments by General STONEMAN, which took place on the 31st of March. General WEBB has the affair under consideration, and it is believed that the men will be paid up to the 1st instant.

Cotton was depressed and lower yesterday on a light business. Flour, Wheat, Corn, Lard, Petroleum and Naval Stores were cheaper, and not in much demand. Sugars were dull and heavy. Rio Coffee was in active request, chiefly on speculative account, at a fractional advance. The Freight market was quiet, and rates were weak.

Transactions were lively yesterday at the Cattle yards. The supply consisted of rather common bullocks, most of which were sold for about 15c.@16c. ℔ ℔., net weight. A small proportion of the Cattle were sold for 17c.@17½c. ℔ ℔. The market was more favorable for sellers than last week. Prices were quite firm, and there seemed to be a larger number of buyers than usual, all demurring at the high prices and trying to persuade sellers to accept the prices asked at a liberal discount. Sheep sell at satisfactory rates, with quick sales at some rates between 6c.@6½c. ℔ ℔., live weight, for good Sheep. Several droves of good sheared Sheep were sold at 6½c. ℔ ℔., live weight. The quality of unsheared would bring 1½c.@2c. ℔ ℔. more than sheared. Several droves of coarse-wooled common Sheep, unsheared, were sold for 7½c.@8c. ℔ ℔., gross weight. The supply consisted chiefly of fair Western Sheep, which showed a liberal infusion of Merino blood. Trade in Swine is fairly active at 10½c.@11c. ℔ ℔. for live Hogs, with a few at 11¼c.@11½c. ℔ ℔. City dressed sell readily at 13½c.@14c. ℔ ℔., with a few extra fed at quotations above 14c.

Checks and Balances in the Treasury Department.

Messrs. EDMUNDS, BUCKALEW and HALSEY have given to the public an extraordinary revelation. To them the Joint Committee on Retrenchment intrusted the examination ordered by Congress touching so much of the machinery and business of the Treasury Department as relates to the printing and issuing of the bonds, notes and securities. The results of their labors show that they were carried on in the mildest of critical moods. Searching the inquiry seems to have been on some points, and yet it is in many respects unsatisfactory. For while the facts reported exhibit a degree of mismanagement for which, we venture to say, no parallel can be found in the financial service of any other Government, we are left in doubt as to the branches of the Department to which culpability most attaches, and also as to the probable extent to which the country has suffered.

The gentleness and reticence of the authors of the report must be deemed somewhat misplaced by those who have studied its statements. It is well to be generous in the interpretation of conduct where room for difference of opinion exists. But generosity does not necessitate the invention of excuses to palliate the enormity of such a state of things as this investigation has exposed. There may have been "innocent mistakes" in matters which are more consistently explained on the theory of fraud, but we are under no obligation always to assume that occurrences by which the Treasury loses millions are always, or even generally, the result of accident. The organization of the Printing Bureau would really seem to have been intended to facilitate fraud; and the manner of doing business in other branches has been so loose and irregular, that knaves might not unreasonably suppose it to have been designed for their special accommodation.

Look at the system as described by the Committee. Referring to the issues of notes and bonds, they report that the testimony tends to show "that the numerical registers of issue are rather theoretical than actual records of transactions"*:

*That is, that the clerks in charge did not compare each issue of the bond by their consecutive numbers with the registry entries, or make the checks in the register from such comparison; but that they made up the entries in the register, as a rule, by taking the first and last number of any particular lot of securities, and making the entries from those, and assuming that all the numbers between were consecutive regularly, and not duplicate."

This method of checking the bonds or notes before leaving the Department, is cited to explain the possibility of errors in the numbering, without actual loss to the Government. What it does prove is that registers of issue thus prepared are in a measure worthless; that they deprive the Department of an essential check upon the transactions of its subordinates, and remove from fraud its greatest obstacle. Nor has dishonesty been hindered by a careful separation of the various stages of preparation previous to issue. The printing, numbering, sealing and issuing are divisions of labor which should be kept totally distinct. Not only should the several branches be separate, under separate management, but the records of any one should be a check upon all the others. The Committee declare, however, that "the books and accounts between the various subdivisions of the printing establishment have been until recently, to say nothing of the defects still existing, so irregularly kept," "as considerably to diminish confidence in the accuracy of the results derived from such sources. In another part of the report it is said: "There have been inexcusable neglect and carelessness in the methods and operations of the Bureau which furnish abundant opportunities and temptations to fraud." Still, again, we are told that the methods of accountability and comparison between the various bureaus of the Treasury have been radically defective. Thus, vouchers for the interchange of securities were often mere slips of paper, which were afterward destroyed, leaving no recorded evidence of large transactions.

"This, in connection with the fact that in respect to the deliveries of these securities from bureau to bureau, and from branch to branch in the Department, no books or accounts were kept in the form of debits and credits, and comparisons made and balances struck, and discrepancies discovered, if existing, as in the case of mercantile accounts, has led to a very considerable confusion, as will have been seen by the preceding tables and statements, even supposing the discrepancies before stated to have been the result of merely innocent error. The official forces in the various bureaus does not appear to have thought it among its duties to make comparisons with the other bureaus in respect to the creation and disposition of securities very often, or to ascertain whether their corresponding bureaus were correct in their accounts and proceedings or not; and it is obvious that without such comparison and criticism of the respective accounts and proceedings the several bureaus are no check upon each other; and, indeed, as we have said, the books in respect to transmission and delivery of securities, when there were any, were so kept as to make such a criticism and comparison almost impossible without a general and comprehensive investigation."

Can any system of management be imagined more favorable to fraud? Haste, and perhaps ignorance in the early stages of the war, might account for temporary defects. But the incapacity that should allow the system to grow, and to continue for years, notwithstanding public protests against it, is barely credible. The bank which should conduct its business in this manner, or the private merchant or capitalist who conducted his affairs without more effective supervision, would end in bankruptcy; and the popular judgment would not suggest "innocent mistakes" by way of explanation. Occasional errors of detail are possible in one branch or another, but other branches should have the means of correcting them. Here, however, the whole system is bad. Plan and working are both as unsound and unsatisfactory as they can be.

It is not surprising that such a system has brought forth a plentiful crop of what the Committee charitably designate as "discrepancies." Many of these Mr. EDMUNDS and his colleagues, with a leniency which their own report scarcely warrants, pronounce "entirely innocent," having arisen, as they say, "from irregularity in the method and detail rather than from positive fraud." The remark occurs in connection with Treasury notes that "are unaccounted for, and of which no explanation can be obtained;" a remark illustrative of the extreme moderation which characterizes the tone of the report. Seventy-nine $5,000 seven-thirty notes are missing; the departmental hypothesis is that they have been destroyed, but the Committee suggest that "the want of any documentary or other specific proof accounting for these notes is" "quite unsatisfactory." Could politeness go further? Concerning the destruction of missing coupon five-twenties of 1862, the Committee consider the evidence "not perfect, but probable." Further, in regard to the same subject—the destruction of 86,218 thousand-dollar bonds—there is no direct evidence to sustain the alleged fact. "No documentary proof of the fact is to be found further than that the destruction was directed;" rather a loose manner of destroying obligations, we think. Yet another "discrepancy" in the matter of destruction is attributed to "an error in the accounts, or an erroneous printing;" and still another phase elicits the opinion that the practice pursued is "unwise and dangerous." The Pacific Railroad bonds are the occasion of "large discrepancies," respecting which only probability is relied upon as presumptive proof that there have not been large frauds. Then there are duplicates of securities for which the Committee cannot offer any conclusive explanation: even the amount is not stated. "Whether they are the consequences of innocent mistake or fraud," it is mercifully said, "cannot certainly be ascertained until the whole issue shall have been redeemed." In fact, we find nowhere in the published version of the report data enabling us to estimate the amount lost by the Government through carelessness or fraud, or the amount of equivocal securities still unredeemed. Enough appears to induce the belief that the aggregate is very large.

As to the fractional currency, even guessing is out of place. Under the system pursued, there has been almost nothing to prevent fraudulent issues to an unlimited extent from the Printing Bureau. "If any fraud has occurred," the Committee observe, "it can never be ascertained from redemptions unless the frauds have been enormous in amount." This is all the consolation we can gather.

One source of error and loss the Committee trace in the political influences which control subordinate appointments. While this practice prevails there can be no guarantee of efficiency or integrity; and the report before us makes it evident that these qualities have been everywhere wanting in a department which most requires their exercise.

The Cuban Situation.

Whatever may be our views of the Cuban cause, we must not be blind to the fact that the insurgents have not yet made the degree of progress generally claimed for them. Exaggeration is the leading trait of all news from the island, both from the official and the insurgent side. We showed, the other day, how, in the Spanish stories, every crossroad skirmish was magnified to a great battle, and every dispersion of a knot of suspicious characters was telegraphed as a tremendous defeat of the patriots. What has become of that "utter rout of a great body of insurgents near Trinidad?" Ten days have since elapsed, and nothing has been heard of the affair.

Rumor and report are absolutely all that we get from "the scene of conflict," and so trivial are even these that one begins to doubt whether there is any conflict at all. Take the telegrams of the last ten days—they are the merest twaddle. Cuban news is a mere repetition of Cretan, which was so untrustworthy as to revive the uncomplimentary Cretan description of St. Paul. That "reliable gentleman" who used to figure, along with the "intelligent contraband," in our own war, has evidently taken up his abode with the Queen of the Antilles, and is plying his old vocation. First he tells us that "the Peruvian monitors are certainly aiding the insurrection"—although the official pledge of neutrality under which Peru took them has been made public. Next he tells us that "within a few days the insurgents will have possession of a seaport;" but he has told us that for three months. He speaks of Havana as being somewhat in the position of the Viceroy of Egypt, under whose seat a "loaded bomb" was lately put; whereas, private residents there tell us they would hardly suspect that an insurrection existed, but for the newspapers. An English gentleman—an impartial observer—lately rode on horseback through the whole of that "insurrectionary district" of which our "reliable gentleman" regularly sends maps, shaded with various degrees of blackness, to indicate the spread of rebellion. At each village he paused and inquired where the insurrection was. "At ——, so many miles ahead," was the invariable response. He got to Havana without finding it.

We would not underrate the insurrection, which is a very serious affair, and promises one day to be successful. But what we say is that sympathy must not lead observers to discount a success not yet attained. The real efforts of the Cubans will probably be made in Summer, when, as Mayor HALL says, General Yellow Jack will take the field against the foreign levies, and the native troops will be better disciplined to fight. There has yet been nothing like a pitched battle, and hardly even a respectable skirmish.

The Fisheries of New-York.

The report of the Fish Commissioners of this State was transmitted to the Legislature on March 9,—a month ago,—but as yet no action appears to have been taken on it. There are two distinct propositions made by the Commission, both of which are important, and one of which requires immediate attention and a prompt appropriation.

The one requiring immediate legislation is the proposition to stock the Hudson River with shad. The Commissioners, consisting of Mr. SETH GREEN and ROBERT ROOSEVELT, both practical men, and perhaps the best informed pisciculturists in America, with Mr. HORATIO SEYMOUR as a figure-head for embellishment, recommend that "immediate steps be taken to breed shad in the Hudson on a scale intended to produce an immediate and marked effect." As shad spawn in the Hudson in June, action on this matter ought to be had at once, as some weeks of time will be required to make the necessary preparations. The Commissioners propose with 400 of SETH GREEN's hatching boxes to hatch during twenty-five days of June next 300,000,000 eggs of shad and turn the young fry loose in the river that they may proceed to sea, get fat, come back and be captured for the benefit of the public. They place the cost of doing this at seven thousand dollars. They balance this expenditure by the following calculation: "If only one in three hundred shad that were so hatched should return, and if they were to maintain a price of fifty cents each, the result would be the receipt of $500,000, in the place of the $7,000." But as the price would not be maintained at fifty cents if such numbers of shad were caught in the Hudson, in a single season, we can imagine a still more desirable result in the sale of the hundred million of shad at ten cents rather than fifty apiece, and still make return sufficient to repay the State for its expenditure. If the price is maintained at fifty cents the fishermen only will be benefited; if such quantities are bred that the price will drop to one-fifth that rate, then the whole public will be benefited; and that is what is wanted and expected of all such public enterprises and expenditures as this. We have no doubt that with the sum asked for Mr. SETH GREEN will place in the Hudson River in a single season enough shad to materially lower the price of this article of food in our market; and with the enforcement of the proper laws for their protection, will, in a few years, reduce the cost of shad to something within reason, and place it within reach of all.

The second proposition of the Commissioners refers to the stocking of the inland waters of the State with trout, white fish, black bass, carp and other valuable varieties, and this can be done at greater leisure and less expense; the estimate of the Commissioners is three thousand dollars. A survey has been made of the principal lakes of New-York State, by which it appears that there are 647 lakes within our limits, comprising an area of 466,457 acres, or 728 square miles. This vast expanse of water, which is at present comparatively unproductive, might be made, if not as valuable as an equal number of cultivated acres, at least to furnish greatly increased returns, and to bring to the homes of the dwellers inland a prime article of food at much less than its present cost. To stock them, or the greater part of them, with proper kinds of fish, either by transporting spawn or those of mature size, would be a matter of trifling expense. Many of them are connected together, and fish would pass from one to the other.

It appears to us very important that this work should not halt with us while it is being vigorously prosecuted in the States all around us; and we beg to urge on the Legislature the early consideration of the bill presented by the Commissioners in their report.

Barkis is Not Willin'.

The report that an American war steamer was coaling in the Bay of Samana has caused, it seems, "great excitement throughout the island;" and we are furthermore assured that "the Dominicans are very unwilling to part with their territory."

In that case, we are still more unwilling to take it; and yet here we find the extraordinary spectacle of a seller very unwilling to sell, and a buyer very unwilling to buy, while both parties are dragged up to the counter to consummate the bargain. BAEZ, greedy to realize cash in hand for his empty purse, puts himself in communication with a "Dominican Ring" at Washington, greedy to—we can hardly say what, but probably they do not mean to be personal losers by their patriotic labors. Mr. FABENS has arrived at the national capital, empowered and intrusted, it is understood, to let or sell. A howl of rage goes up from his helpless countrymen—but it avails nothing.

The signs of the times are that we need not hurry about buying ports in the West Indies or anywhere else. The "attrition of gravitation" is already acting on Cuba, Canada and Mexico, at a sufficient rate. If, however, we must spend some of our extra funds, in order to relieve the plethora of the Treasury, let us begin with St. Thomas, where we have also a question of honor involved.

Mr. Johnson and His Successor.

Mr. JOHNSON, when engaged in "swinging around the circle," is never over-choice in epithets or over-courteous to opponents; but he could not have said anything in more execrable taste than he did at Knoxville, in exclaiming, "Thank God my honors have not been gained through blood. The wounded soldiers cannot attribute their wounds to me." Compared with this, his Baltimore slur at his successor as being a willing "slave to Congress," was a compliment. All the blood GRANT has shed has been in defence of that Constitution of which Mr. JOHNSON still imagines himself to be the only guardian. It was noble blood, nobly offered; and it was because General GRANT had so managed that this blood was not shed in vain, that his countrymen first turned their minds upon him for the Presidential chair. To slur at those whose "honors have been gained through blood" is to cast a reflection upon some of the best men of the land, of all opinions and all parties; it is to decry the ultimate tribute of patriotism.

MINOR TOPICS.

President GRANT has signed the bill which passed both Houses of Congress last Wednesday, modifying the Tenure-of-Office act. Ever since the passage of the bill he has been sending home nominations to the Senate as rapidly as possible, and it is understood that the Diplomatic and Consular nominations will be sent in this week.

This is a free country. And we have received the prospectus of a paper, to be published in this City, under the name of the Imperialist, which, while holding Democracy to be a failure, will "demand that, on the ruins of this unfortunate Republic, shall be reared the firm and substantial structure of an Empire." We are not told the name of the heaven-born personage whom the Imperialist intends to advocate as Emperor; but we do know that Ex-President JOHNSON, in his speech at Knoxville last Saturday, exclaimed: "Let me tell you here that a wise and good Prince is infinitely better than a despotic, arbitrary Congress." It is true that, in using these words, the Ex-President did not directly nominate himself for Prince Imperial; but he gave a hint as to the proper candidate, which should not be lost upon the Imperialist.

President GRANT has given orders to our naval commander at Havana to see to the protection of American citizens in Cuba, and he has also given orders that will prevent filibustering bands leaving this country for Cuba. This is the whole policy of justice and international law in regard to the matter.

The British Post Office, according to a Cable dispatch, has finally awarded the contract for the ocean mails to the Cunard Steamship Company. We do not learn, however, whether the contract in question is the old one for one mail a week, or the new one, granted by the Disraeli Ministry, for two weekly services. And it does not appear whether the Committee obtained by Mr. SEELY on the subject has yet reported. We doubt whether the action of the Post Office can be considered as "final" until that report has been made; and the animus of the original supporters of the motion for that Committee was so decidedly against the continuance of the subsidy system, that we can scarcely believe that the question has been settled in so summary a manner.

The fluctuations in the price of gold have been very slight during the last month. About the time of GRANT's inauguration there was a fall of four or five per cent. from the figures that had been maintained for many months previously; but after that it became steady, and lately the price has varied but fractionally from 131. We differ from "Veteran Observer" in thinking it of no consequence what the premium on gold may be. We think it of great consequence that the national credit should be golden.

The Express holds that the final adjournment of Congress this week will be a "God-send to the people," and then, adds the Express, "If it (Congress) could not meet for the next ten years, and it was possible to administer the Government constitutionally and legally, it would be a blessing." In the Express, too, in favor of an Emperor, or in favor of that "wise and good Prince" whom President JOHNSON declares to be "infinitely better" for us than a "despotic Congress?"

An "Englishman" has taken the trouble to write to us from Cincinnati, in order to "dare" us to print a [illegible] letter about our recent topic on the last British fight in China. He undertakes "as an Englishman" to say that "if the citizens of this or any other country

Canadians are now emigrating, or who know the real causes of their backwardness, will smile at this opinion. It is but a few years since the abolition of the old Seigneurial tenure of land, which, with the law of Mortmain and the despotism of ecclesiastical domination, were the real underlying causes of the backwardness of the French Canadian population. Not by "cheap British fabrics," but by quite other and deeper causes has Lower Canada been kept back.

Mr. FROUDE's address at St. Andrews was rather wordy and windy; but he showed by one passage that he had an excellent idea of the literary and journalistic style necessary in these days. After remarking that the rewards of literature were generally small, and that the adjustment of them was awry, he said: "The present rule was to pay by the page or sheet—the more words the more pay, while the rule ought to be exactly the reverse." We commend this idea to all editors of newspapers and magazines, to all writers and authors, and to everybody who is accustomed to "take the pen in hand."

As an encouraging item to fiddlers, we may state that the late M. TROPLONG commenced life as a violin player, and yet before the close of his career, he had been made a peer by King LOUIS PHILIPPE, and President of the Senate by the Emperor NAPOLEON. It is not to his credit that he never referred to his fiddling days after he became a peer.

Bavaria has been the first country in Europe to begin something like disarmament; for we suppose we may thus construe the military order which has been issued, and was sent us by Cable from Munich, "granting unlimited leave of absence to thirty men of each company in all the infantry regiments of the Bavarian Army." If France and Prussia would take some such step as this, we might look for some relief from the enormous military establishments which crush down the nations of Europe.

From our fashion correspondent we have the following remarks: "This season sees a general revival of braids for ladies' bonnets—straw braids, of new and old designs. The new are interwrought with jet and pearl beads—which is by no means an improvement. Straw may be braided ever so elaborately, but it should not be worked up with materials for which it has no sympathy—of which it has no suggestion. Its freshness and breeziness—souvenir of the fields wherein it grew, should be allowed to assert itself instead of being smothered by the vulgar fripperies of the workshop."

AMUSEMENTS.

Musical.

"La Perichole" was given last evening at the Fifth-avenue Theatre, (JAMES FISK, Jr., proprietor,) as duly announced by Mr. BRIGFELD. The attendance overflowed the charming little place, and the beautiful audience was reflected a hundred times in the many mirrors with which the bright building is lined. Long before the time of opening the house was filled, and probably as many left disappointed as of those who were fortunate enough to remain and be pleased. We have quite recently spoken of "La Perichole." It is a work warmer in imagination, and more perfect in melody, than any which we have had from the prolific pen of OFFENBACH. The scene being removed from the immediate influence of Parisian ideas, there has been an evident effort on the part of the composer to attain a certain local coloring, and this, with his well-known rhymic tendencies, renders the Spanish style a convenient one for him. No recent work has pleased us so much as "La Perichole," and we are glad to find that it has favor with the public. Of the performance last night we can speak in the highest terms. Why should it not be good? The company has played the work repeatedly during its recess, and all the artists who have made its success return under Mr. BRIGFELD's able management. Mlle. IRMA was in admirable voice. The proportions of the theatre enable the lady to show all the delicate nuances of her naturally fine organ, as well as its native purity and power. M. AUJAC was, of course, excellent, and the smaller parts were interpreted with the clearness which we expect in such an organization, and are rarely disappointed in finding. The chorus was especially strong, and lacked nothing whatever in precision and knowledge of the necessary stage business. The scenery, in its way, is good, but it has evidently been produced in haste, but it is good, even too good in its way. The orchestra is adapted to the size of the house, but it lacks a firmer tone in the violins. There are certain wood and brass instruments which cannot be reduced in number. The poor stringed instruments have always to suffer from the pressure of the full-breathed brethren. One or two more violins would certainly preserve the melodic statements which OFFENBACH is constantly in the habit of making, and which have to be asserted, inasmuch as they are statements, and essential to the development of the composer's purpose. We may add that the material of the orchestra, as constituted, is admirable.

There is a change of opera each evening this week. To-night we are to have "La Grande Duchesse," with TOSTEE; on Wednesday "Barbe Bleue;" on Thursday "Orphée aux Enfers," and so on. The opening last night was so complete a success that the rest may readily be anticipated.

Fire in Exchange-place—One Person Injured.

At 12:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire was discovered among a lot of cotton samples in the office of CLASSON & Co., cotton brokers, on the first floor of No. 59 Exchange-place. The flames originated in the rear part of the floor, and attained such rapid headway before the arrival of the firemen, that I. SCHONENDAHL, the only person in the place, was severely burned on the face and hands while attempting to close the safe. The Fire Brigade succeeded in extinguishing the flames before they had extended to the third floor. The dense smoke which pervaded the entire edifice rendered it difficult for the occupants of the upper floors to escape, some of them only doing so by the ladders raised by the firemen to the windows. The following losses occurred; CLASSON & Co., on office fixtures, &c., $3,000; insured. GILLIAN & Co., brokers, having an office on the same floor, lost $1,000. JAUTON & SWEEZER, stationers, in the basement, had their stock damaged to the extent of $1,000; insured for $3,000 in the Mechanics' and Traders'. M. C. KLINGENFIELD, brokers, also in the basement, sustained a loss of $500. GIBSON, BEADLESTON & Co., on the first floor, lost $500; insured in the Mechanics' and Traders'. RUTTEN & BOUN, bankers, on the second floor, sustained a loss of $5,000; no insurance. The loss of this firm included $4,300 worth of stamps, which were all destroyed. CROSS & SMITH, brokers, on the second floor, lost $200 by water. The damage to building is estimated at $5,000. The origin of the fire is understood to be the result of carelessness in smoking while examining cotton samples.

ANOTHER GREAT ROBBERY.

A Safe Opened and Over $80,000 in Securities Stolen—The Thieves Escape with the Plunder.

Close upon the heels of the great robbery of one million of dollars in Philadelphia, comes the announcement of an attempt upon the part of the New-York thieves to emulate that notable example. The fact of this last achievement of the industrious rogues only leaked out at a late hour last night, and the details of the affair have not yet been ascertained. The Police seem to know nothing of the robbery except that Superintendent KENNEDY received a note yesterday afternoon from RICHARD P. BUCK & Co., No. 29 South-street, announcing that during Sunday night their safe was opened by burglars and $84,800 in various securities stolen, but of which amount only $600 in United States coupon 5-20 bonds and $300 or $400 in cash could be made available by the thieves. Although this information reached the Central Police Office at a comparatively early hour, no person was sent to the place to make an investigation, and consequently it is not known how the burglars entered the building, or what means they used to open the safe. Such, at least, was the explanation given at the Central Police office as an excuse for the paucity of the information on hand.

The letter received by the Superintendent gives the following as the securities stolen:

$10,000 stock Peoples' National Bank, Charleston, S.C.
10,000 registered bonds of South Carolina.
14,100 stock of Panama Railroad.
3,000 stock Fourth National Bank, New-York.
3,000 stock Leather Manufacturers' National Bank, New-York.
2,000 stock American Exchange National Bank, New-York.
2,000 stock Bucksport National Bank, Pennsylvania.
2,000 stock Nassau National Bank, Brooklyn.
2,000 stock Home Insurance Company, New-York.
2,000 stock Firemen's Trust Insurance Company, New-York.
11,000 stock Hanover National Bank, New-York.
2,000 stock Northern Railroad.
6,900 stock Mercantile Mutual Insurance Company, New-York.
200 stock Old Corn Exchange.
3,000 stock United States Five-twenty Bonds, registered in the name of the Brooklyn Society for the relief of respectable indigent females.
2,000 in United States Five-twenty Bonds registered in the name of John G. Pendleton.

Labor Movements.

As was recently stated in these columns, the strike of the journeymen book and job printers for $20 a week instead of $18, will probably be brought to a close this week. Committees of the employing firms and of the Typographical Union have held several meetings and have at last settled upon terms. The employers concede the extra $2 weekly, and the Union deduct one cent per thousand ems upon a great portion of their piece work. The scale, as arranged, will be presented to the meeting of the Union to-night, at No. 63 East Broadway, and will, in every probability, be ratified. The strike will then be ended, after a duration of eleven weeks, much to the detriment of both employers and journeymen. About one hundred and twenty men are yet out of employment, and the majority of these will obtain immediate work. It has been proposed to open a reading-room for journeymen printers, the expense to be borne by both the Union and the Typothetae. Those in need of employment will enter their names there, and employers needing hands will do the same.

The marble-bed rubbers demanded yesterday an increase of 25 cents a day on their wages of $3 25. A portion of their employers acceded to the terms, and the rest will probably follow suit. The Staten Island carpenters are on strike for $3 25 a day instead of $3, and the laborers for $2 50 in place of $1 75. But few employers have yet agreed. The Brooklyn carpenters demanded yesterday an additional 25 cents upon their wages of $3 25 to $3 50, and both the German and English tailors are forming rapidly into Unions in order to obtain an increase of pay and a decrease of working hours. The shop tailors now labor fifteen to sixteen hours out of the twenty-four, and earn from $9 to $12 a week. Their wives work, their children aid them, and, according to the assertion of one of them, something or other is done by the dogs and cats toward the general struggle for life, and the canary bird threads the needles. The eight-hour feeling is very general in all trades, and some will gain their point in that respect this Summer.

A Mysterious Case.

About a week since the body of a woman was found floating in the water at the sectional dock, Hoboken, and from the fact that her face was in a somewhat mutilated condition, it was supposed that she had been foully dealt with. Only a few days previously a woman was said to have been abducted from a Jersey City and Hoboken car; and parties sought to make the abducted woman, Miss ANNE MCSPIRIT, and the body, identical; but this failed, inasmuch as a couple of days afterward ANNE appeared in body, and not in spirit, before the Jersey City Recorder, by whom she was ordered to sixty days' imprisonment for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The mystery connected with the drowned body is now being cleared up; for yesterday morning a Mrs. WILLOX, residing at the Meadows, Hoboken, called on Coroner WHITE at his office and stated that from the description given she believed the deceased was her daughter. She added that the body could be identified by a mark on the head, and to account for her daughter's absence stated the woman was inveigled into a disreputable house in Hoboken, from which she disappeared in a most mysterious manner. The Coroner will probably order the body to be exhumed.

Escape of a Convict from the Custody of a Deputy Sheriff.

GEORGE KING, convicted of robbery in what has been known as the King bond robbery, was sentenced last week to the State Prison for five years. It so happened by accident that he was the only one on Friday last remaining to be sent up. On that day Captain RYNDERS told his assistant, knowing that KING was a somewhat slippery customer, not to take any single convict to Sing Sing without special orders from himself, or the Court giving the sentence. Notwithstanding this caution, on Saturday morning, Captain RYNDERS being absent from sickness, his assistant, JOHN MORAN, went to the Tombs in the morning, and removed KING with the avowed purpose of taking him to Sing Sing. Yesterday morning Mr. MORAN sent word to the Sheriff's office, at about 10 A. M., that KING had escaped while on his road to prison. Word was immediately sent to him to come to the office. Up to 2 P. M. he had not obeyed the order. At that hour two special deputies were sent after him, who brought him down at 4 P. M.

In the meantime Sheriff O'BRIEN, who was at Albany, had been telegraphed, and a return message brought to arrest the deputy, and to use every means to rearrest KING. Captain RYNDERS and the Under-Sheriff, Mr. STEVENS, went to Recorder HACKETT and got out a warrant against MORAN, and he was placed immediately in the Tombs. His bail is fixed at $5,000. His examination will come up in a few days.

Celtic Club Ball.

The first annual ball of the Celtic Club took place last night at Apollo Hall, and proved to be a decidedly festive occasion. MCCAFFERY is President of the Club, JOHN FITZGERALD, Jr., Secretary, and THOMAS CONNELLY Treasurer. The organization proposes giving a ball every Winter, and adding a picnic in the Summer.

Reported Landings of Americans—Military Situation—Police Reorganization—Puerto Principe.

From Our Own Correspondent.

HAVANA, [illegible]

The reports of the landing of filibusters and recruits from the United States, for the service of the Cuban insurgents, [illegible]

The military situation—or as it might properly be termed, the mystery situation—remains in statu quo, although the Spaniards have undoubtedly gained a great deal of territory and importance within the past month, in the central department of the island especially. [illegible] The fact is, that telegraphic communication with Villa Clara, Cienfuegos, Sagua, and Sti. Spiritus, has been reëstablished, [illegible]

EMIGRATION.

The merchants and tradesmen are beginning to feel the effects of the exodus of Cubans, and the Government is trying its best to prevent the people from leaving. [illegible]

THE CODDINGTON CASE.

Mr. CODDINGTON, the United States Consular Agent at Gibara, who was brought here in irons on the steamer Pelayo, has been released at the instance of Consul HALL. [illegible] Mr. DOMINGO CASANOVA, a Cuban and a naturalized citizen of the United States, has been arrested for the second time on the charge of being disloyal, and is now in prison.

ROWDY VOLUNTEERS.

On Sunday last the row was commenced by the Volunteers, a member of said force being a notorious character named Lavio, bull-fighter by profession, and, like all bullies, a coward and assassin. He stabbed several persons, and being aided by several drunken rowdy companions, committed such excesses that even the mild and kind Government could not overlook it, and the well-meaning portion of the Spaniards became so disgusted with what they had seen and heard that, to the great regret of the brutes among the so-called loyal patriots, a court-martial was organized, and the two scoundrels sent to a Spanish fort as prisoners. Of course they will be released in a short time, for the sympathies of this race are always with the sanguinary, especially in cases like this.

REORGANIZATION OF THE POLICE.

The Police force has been reorganized as a matter of economy, but more probably to check the many abuses continually committed by military satraps, who accidentally were called to fill the position of chief or subordinate. The changes are very slight, but they are the forerunners of more radical reforms, as I have been informed. The Governor of Havana, a civil official, will in future act as chief of the force, and the different Commissaries and Celadors as his subordinates.

PUERTO PRINCIPE.

The Fanal, of Puerto Principe, in a supplement to its issue of 27th ult., gives a gloomy picture of the state of affairs in that region. The Fanal is edited and published by Spaniards. It says: "In the interior the greater part of the houses are deserted; some of them abandoned by those adhering to the Government, others by fear and by the alarms propagated, but more by hunger, which promises to be great in the country, and the remainder of the people are acting outside of their accustomed habits. Worship, the school, order, all the duties of life which claim as civil, are suspended; [illegible]

THE PHILADELPHIA ROBBERY.

Full Particulars of the Robbery of the Beneficial Saving Fund Society.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer, April 5.

Undoubtedly the boldest, best arranged and most successful robbery that ever took place in this city, and which, perhaps, has had but few equals in the country, was perpetrated sometime between [illegible] yesterday morning and [illegible] in the afternoon. [illegible] the building occupied by the Beneficial Saving Fund Society of Philadelphia, at the [illegible] corner of Twelfth and Chestnut streets, was entered by robbers, and completely stripped of everything valuable in the shape of money, bonds, &c., the institution had on hand. A rough estimate places the value of the amount thus carried off by the burglars at [illegible], of which about [illegible] were in coupon bonds, which are not registered, and which can, of course, be readily disposed of by the robbers. About [illegible] in greenbacks were carried off, and the balance was in untransferable bonds, &c., which will be of no use to the robbers.

The Saving Society used the first floor of a large dwelling at the northwest corner of Twelfth and Chestnut streets, the room being formerly the parlor of the residence. The entrance is on Chestnut-street, by a flight of steps. The windows are on Chestnut and Twelfth streets, and in the rear is a window which opens on the closed entrance to the billiard saloon on the second story of the building on Twelfth-street, adjoining the Saving Fund Society rooms. This window, which affords, from its position, an easy entrance into the Society's counting-room, has been encased with sheet iron, and it was thought securely fastened, but it was no barrier to the robbers, who effected an entrance through this window.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the proprietor of the billiard saloon mentioned, tried to get into his saloon, but found the door on Twelfth-street so peculiarly fastened that his key was useless. He then entered by a roundabout way, through an entrance on Chestnut-street, and when in the act of going down stairs to see what was the matter, he discovered that the window belonging to the Saving Fund Society was open. A short examination soon disclosed the fact that the window had been forced open. The alarm was then given, and some of the directors of the institution were summoned, when an examination of the premises disclosed a wholesale robbery.

Everything about the room was in a state of inextricable confusion. It was found that the large Lillie vault fire-proof safe, situated at the southwest angle of the room, was broken open, and its entire contents, consisting of all the bonds, money, &c., in charge of the Society, were abstracted. These valuables were contained in numerous tin boxes, which were taken out one by one, and broken open, and their contents secured. A small safe stationed within the large one, having four locks, and which contained papers of the greatest value, was lifted out into the floor, and the lock picked, and every paper taken from it. The carpet of the room was torn up in different places, and torn envelopes that contained valuables, the bonds, &c., were strewed around in all directions. The robbers had evidently been at work for several hours, for it was found that a large piece of timber, evidently prepared for the purpose, had been fastened in an upright position [illegible]

[illegible]

Further Particulars—Suspension of the Bank.

From the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, April 5.

No clue has as yet been obtained which would lead to the detection of the bold and daring robbers. That the thieves are experts is evident from the manner in which the work was done. The robbery has probably been planned for some time, and the movements of the watchman and the officers of the institution carefully studied. On the door of the safe are several marks which show that a close calculation had been made in regard to the operations upon the lock. The door of the safe was bored so that the drill would strike the point of the lever in the lock. When so struck the lock seems to have tumbled apart, and thus made the opening of the door an easy task. A jimmy of steel, and of very fine manufacture, was found this morning in the basement of the Academy of Natural Sciences, where it had evidently been thrown. The detectives are actively at work, and it is to be hoped that they will be able to discover the thieves. The news of the robbery has created considerable consternation among the depositors, and a crowd gathered about the office this morning. No money was paid out, and the following card has been issued:

BENEFICIAL SAVINGS FUND, APRIL 5, 1869.—In consequence of the recent robbery of a portion of the assets of this institution, it is deemed expedient by the Board of Managers not to pay any money to depositors for the present.

Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, a fire broke out in [illegible] a basement liquor store kept by BERNARD MCCOURT, but from what cause could not be definitely ascertained.

A very respectable number of persons assembled at the salesroom yesterday. The bidding was fair, but not quite as brisk as was expected. The sales announced for to-day are varied, and embrace several very desirable pieces of City and country property. The Fort Hamilton property, for sale by Messrs.
